TO THE PUBLIC.

WE here present to the Public, the first San Francisco Directory yet published.

In an ordinary work of this nature, in a long-established community, the difficulties are such as to require the closest care, and yet in many instances to disappoint the best efforts of the compiler. All these disadvantages prevail here in a greater degree, in addition to many others peculiar to this place alone. The very frequent change of business residence, rendered necessary by the almost daily change in all the thoroughfares of trade in the City—the great variety of inhabitants, comprising denizens of every clime, creed and country—their very mixed occupations, (with the minor difficulties of foreign languages and names,) all present obstacles to a perfect comprehensive summary, such as to task, and almost exceed, the best energies of any publishers. As far as it has been possible to attain correctness in a work of this kind, under such circumstances, the present publishers have endeavored to effect it. For any verbal errors, or mistakes in names, almost unavoidable in a first issue, they request a favorable consideration.

The classification of professions, trades, &c., and the numerous business advertisements immediately following it, will be found worthy the attention of the reader.

COCHITUATE BATHS,

SANSOME STREET.

Since Retrenchment's the watchword,
 We would here wish to state,
 To the friends of the Bath,
 Called the Cochituate,
 If they wish a good bath,
 And a cheap one, they'd go
 To the SANSOME STREET BATH,
 Kept by Collier & Snow.
 Five dollars will buy you
 Ten tickets, I'm told;
 Securing your health,
 Far more precious than gold,
 While seventy-five cents
 For one bath, is their charge,
 A price that no miser
 Would ever call large;
 Some people will shave you,
 And some will shave twice—
 First they'd shave with their razor,
 Then shave with their price.
 If you wish a cheap shave,
 And a shave that's no sham,
 You will find there a chap
 Who will shave like a Dam.
 For a quarter he'd shave you,
 And shave you well, too;
 For a half cut your hair,
 For a half will shampoo;
 So when you want washing,
 And don't wish to wait,
 You will hurry at once
 To the COCHITUATE,
 On Sansome, between
 California and Bush,
 Is the spot to which every
 Pedestrian will push.
 If you want a nice shirt
 They have shirts to sell there,
 And the finest perfumery
 To use on the hair.
 With so many attractions,
 Look out for a jam
 Of friends, who will call
 On SNOW, COLLIER & DAM.

Candy and Confectionery Department.

In this branch of his business the proprietor has workmen of unsurpassed skill and ingenuity, (being also a practical confectioner himself,) which enables him to furnish Public Dinners unequalled in style and luxuriance by any establishment in this bright and sunny region, or among the cold and barren hills on the Atlantic side of the American Continent. Wedding parties, pic-nic excursions, and social parties, supplied with everything essential on such occasions. And then! to please the ladies and children, Winn has, for presents, an endless variety of fancy Boxes, filled with choice Confectionery. Also, elegantly ornamented Hearts, with Mottoes, Candy Cradles, Baskets, and other fancy articles in that line, too various to enumerate.

What gentleman can expect to receive an affectionate smile from his lady-love, or (should he be so happy as to have them) his loving wife and little ones, if he has not called at Winn's on his way home, and filled his pockets with some of his delicious sweets, to make merry their fond hearts? Gents, it is these little attentions that make the social circle pleasant and happy in this country, especially where we are deprived of our relatives and friends, to whom we have been accustomed in our former cheerful and happy homes.
